Mr. Fisher Ames

Defender of Liberty, Christian Educator

Ames Bible College and Ames Christian University proudly take their names from Fisher Ames, one of America's "forgotten founding fathers" and an historic proponent of the Bible as the source of all wisdom.

Fisher Ames is best known for his opposition to Jeffersonian democracy. Pure democracy, he argued, would lend itself to the new nation's coming under the influence of the basest of human motivations: greed and a lack of public virtue. Left unchecked, Ames believed, pure democracy would itself swallow up the very freedom on which it was founded.

But Ames was no opponent to liberty. To the contrary, he argued forcefully that the new United States of America was to be constructed as a constitutional republic. To succeed, he believed, the United States must latch itself to a constitution of laws, not the whim of democratic preference.

In addition, Fisher Ames was among the outspoken supporters of the Bible's central role in all of education. As the word of God, Ames held, the Bible should be at the very center of the curriculum.

We honor not only Fisher Ames' distinction between democracy and republican forms of government, but the fine intellectual rigor required to differentiate between the two. It is this level of discovery and insight, we believe, makes up the Great Ideas on which our biblically-based curriculum is founded.

About Ames Bible College

Ames Bible College, (ABC), based in Fort Myers, Florida, is the free bible college affiliate of Ames Christian University, with its headquarters in Naples, Florida. ABC provides free bible study courses which are available via the Internet for both credit and non-credit courses.

Our Purpose

Beginning with a comprehensive overview of the scriptures, Ames Bible College curriculum integrates personal, social and spiritual applications of God's Word. By completing the program, learners encounter God's presence in their lives, their work, their church and their community.

Our Goal and Curriculum

Using the curriculum published by the Harvestime Institute, Ames Bible College provides a program based on a foundation of biblical studies. Our goal is to enable learners to pursue a biblical education that combines excellence in instruction with flexibility.

Implementation of Curriculum

Each course is a self-contained module of lessons, assignments and tests. Learners complete the course and return the test materials on-line for assessment. Courses are delivered on-line in the popular Adobe pdf file format.

The courses are entirely self-paced so each person's time to completion will vary. The curriculum has been assessed for college credit so a college-equivalent experience is expected.

Admission Requirements:
